~~Gospel Centred Family Tim Chester~~

It's not about how the gospel fits into Christian family life, but how family life should fit into the gospel—God's greatest purpose for this universe, achieved in Christ. Many books aim to raise up competent, balanced parents and well-trained, well-rounded children. But Tim Chester and Ed Moll focus on families growing God-knowing, Christ-confessing, grace-receiving, servant-hearted, mission-minded believers—adults and children together.

This is good. God really does mean for the gospel to be central to the lives of his people and to be right at the center of the church. Joe Thorn defines the gospel-centered life like this: “ [T]he gospel-centered life is a life where a Christian experiences a growing personal reliance on the gospel that protects him from depending on his own religious performance and being seduced and ...

When I received Tim Chester & Ed Moll ' s extremely helpful book Gospel-Centred Family, I was determined to write an immediate review. Weeks passed. Weeks passed. I kept going back to the short 93 page booklet to remind myself of gospel principles in raising my children.
