I like him, he likes me, now what? - Milk & Honey

If your gut is telling you "I like him more than he likes me," you have to address it or it will eat away at you. I used to always feel this way in romantic relationships, with friends, and even with some family members. Instead of trying to figure out the degrees to which anyone is interested in and committed to you, listen to their patterns (which are made up of their actions), instead of their words (which your insecurities are wired to latch onto).
