$4.00. Updike writes very well; he can handle long and complicated syntax with nonchalant grace; he is always johnny-on-the-spot with the sharp image, the sensual observation, the neat, immediate response; he can appear to say one thing, which he isn ' t saying at all, in order to conceal from you the fact that he is saying something quite else; he can, in short, create a surface that gives you some illusion of depth.
