"The God has created the universe,we all are the beautiful part of that,but our pride has distanced us.We all in the universe are inter-connected with each other with love, but our jealousy created all the fuss. Spiritual progress and arrogance just poles apart,both are quite antithetical in nature.The great human feelings compassion, love, humility.....have immense power to cleanse our impure minds. Once our heart is large enough with these virtues,we may embrace all in the universe in our fold and we grow spiritually, walking in the righteous path.... and enjoy the bliss,that the God had bestowed upon us."

Can Mechanical Engineering and Fashion Designing be on the same page? Naïve and idealistic, Patrick joins the promising Rajan Industries for hefty paychecks, lucrative perks and aspiring positions. Like for any other fresher from a prestigious engineering college, his training period isn't anything less than a 'honeymoon period'. But actual married life starts only when the honeymoon ends. What awaits next for Patrick counted in the least popular department, a boss with his brain on sabbatical, a jealous senior expert in 'Et tu' moments and inescapable office politics. The threshold of tolerating ugly experiences reaches in only nine months – standard pregnancy period – and what is born after that is Patrick version 2.0: the one who chooses to leave all at once but not in an ideal way this time. What made it happen? A wearisome job, a provoking boss, his paralyzed creativity or just love? The Resignation Letter is a coming of age story of a young engineer toppling from a greased and stained job in an outback town and falling over the lavish hanging robes on Delhi's fashion-street.
