The third and last book in this trilogy to be published, is the wineguide. In Cape Town you will find a lot of the best wine produced today. Perhaps not surprising, considering that it is as much as 600 vineyards in the immediate proximity. In this guide you will get a quantity articles, interviews, listings and information on where the various vineyards is located, what they produce and what they can offer that is clearly out of the ordinary. Only in the central wine districts in Cape Town are around 250 vineyards so you can already begin to look forward to something clearly special. In the guide you will also find a list of the 50 best and nicest places to eat. That way you'll get the most out of your holiday without having to spend time searching when you can rather use it to enjoy.

The President's term of office is coming to an end and he is ineligible for re-election. A litany of corruption scandals and human rights violations haunts him of potential prosecution once out of office. He must gamble between the unpopular decision of manipulating the constitution to secure another term of office or carefully anoint a successor who will shelter him from prosecution. This novel is a political thriller that unveils the mystery behind some presidents' passionate disinterest to leave office even at the expiry of their tenures. It is intertwined with shrewd political maneuvering from State Houses to surreptitious locales across the country, espionage and counterespionage, and climaxes with The President's Anointed's illicit relationship with a minor...

before she even knew what the word virginity meant. Caught between being a sibling to her brother and ruining his life, she decides to keep her abuse a secret from her parents for seven years. When she finally decides to reveal the secret to her parents, she does not receive the sympathy or support she expected. Disappointed, Lesedi gives herself to a young man, who gets her pregnant and then deserts her. Lesedi goes through life angry and bitter at her brother until he is lying on his deathbed, suffering from AIDS, and she realises that all that anger was not worth it. It is at that point that she starts to comprehend what it means to forgive. In the midst of grieving for her brother, Lesedi accepts a marriage proposal from a man she thought was a godsend, not knowing that she was letting the devil into her life. After going through a life-threatening divorce, she goes back to her ex-boyfriend. But things don't work out between her and her HIV-positive boyfriend, who pressurises Lesedi to leave her church and religion to join his church. She ends the relationship soon after she is exposed to the risk of contracting the virus and had to take ARV treatment for a month. After years of heartache, Lesedi learns to accept life as it is and to let go. She finally decides to let go of the man she has secretly loved for years, a man who broke her heart by marrying another woman while he was flirting with Lesedi. Just when she is ready to give up on love, Lesedi meets a man she is attracted to and falls in love with him. It is through her cousin's tragedy that she realises that Abraham was not brought into her life for love, but that he was a godsend, an angel to deliver messages to Lesedi from God. Finally, after twenty-seven years, Lesedi realises that she has spent most of her life healing from the hurt and sorrow that men have brought into her life. She finds peace, bliss, and happiness by turning to God. They say life begins at forty; Lesedi's life begins at twenty-seven.
