Doyle published the first editions of his comedy The Commitments (1987; film 1991) through his own company, King Farouk, until a London-based publisher took over. The work was the first installment of his internationally acclaimed Barrytown novels, which also included The Snapper (1990; film 1993), The Van (1991; film 1996), and The Guts (2013). The series centres on the ups and downs of the never-say-die Rabbitte family, who temper the bleakness of life in an
