Our lives are so busy that we don't have time to pray. We forget that GOD should be the "head." Therefore our lives as we know it may have no order. This now leaves our children, who don't know about "the spirit," that should dwell within us. Some parents don't know of the spirit that is needed to put us on the right path, therefore "we" are lost. I am hoping these words can help people find that spirit in themselves. Arletha J. Newson was born on Chicago's south side. A wife, mother of two and grandmother of three. She has worked at a major downtown hospital for fourteen years. Arletha's second job is providing Swedish Massage's to clients whom she travels to, removing stress and aches from everyday life. Arletha believes that this book can put individuals with low self esteem in power to believe in GOD and to motivate themselves.
