Volvo puts the engine serial number in two places: A sticker on the timing cover and a stamping on a engine block surface. It is very common for the sticker on the timing cover to be missing or damaged but the stamping on the engine block is always there. The sticker and the stamping both have the engine family and the engine serial number.

These engines were painted in dark charcoal. Even though they were marked OMC Cobra, these engines were in fact produced by Volvo. Their serial numbers started out with a two-digit number followed by a letter string which indicated the model and year of production. So for example, in an engine with the serial number 4.3GSPNCA the 4.3 tells us the displacement. The letter G identifies the engine as a General Motors block.
